

Luke Mcleod

As a resident of Stevens County I am very concerned that the rapidly growing wolf population is going to have excessive effects on Mule Deer, Elk and Moose if left unchecked. I would hate to see Wolves impact these animals like they have North ID where once healthy forrests have little to no big game left. I don't want wolves gone, just managed like all other predators.