

Lorin Lindner

It is premature to be hunting wolves especially at the behest of the same rancher who has declared he'd like to see all wolves eradicated. We need to live in harmony with this critical species not kill it off to extinction again. This is mismanagement at it's worst.