

BRENDA STRANGE

Wolves were here long before humans arrived. Wolves are an integral part of the environment keeping herd animals moving and rivers clean. If cattle are grazing in wild lands that contain wolves then the rancher/farmer should employ all non-lethal methods of keeping the wolves away from their cattle. If some cattle are killed then the rancher should accept that he will lose a few cattle. Thank you.