

Ryan Georgi

Thank you WDFW for handling such a hotly debated subject. With that said I think we should form a conservation and management model based off of Idaho. I support lethal methods of controlling the wolf population once they get delisted in WA. I'd like to see a limited number of special permits in newly established Wolf Management Units (WMU's) using any legal weapon. Hunting would only be allowed on private land.