

Diane Desenberg

It is generally agreed that public education would be the single most important thing to help with wolf conservation. Please proceed in that direction. No post-protection plans are needed, until these endangered wolves are protected! There is value in keeping the top predators, such as these wolves, healthy. Please share such messaging with the general public. Thank you.