

jason keedy

Wolves will continue to be a threatened species so long as we have such a low bar of criteria in which we allow Diamond M and others to put forth minimal effort in working with wolf recovery. We must revisit and strengthen the criteria in which they must to be allowed to graze cheaply on OUR public lands. If they are not good stewards (leave it as it was including the rightful animal inhabitants) then you rescind their lease.