

Audrey Yager

I am a retired Washingtonian, born and raised in Washington. I respect wolves and their place in nature. More needs to be done by nonlethal means to resolve conflicts between ranchers livestock and wolves. Before you kill think about what will result from this action. Please, educate Washingtonians about wolves and wolf management. They have a place in this state which should be resolved without killing them off.