

Old Guy

With any luck at all, WFWD will be just as successful with this project as Idaho was. They not only brought back wolves to the level they wanted to attain but they also gave elk and deer something to worry about. Hunters who have been hunting deer and elk in Idaho for years have given up due to the lack of elk or even sign of them since the wolf recovery was fully in place. Maybe our ancestors had a reason to keep their numbers down.