

Sager Small

Wolves are critically important to our states ecosystem and must be protected. I come at this issue from a salmonid habitat field and am well aware of the impact they can make by hunting deer/elk and therein preventing overgrazing of absolutely crucial riparian areas for these already pressured fish.

Thank you!