

Charlene Day

Please educate all decision makers about the importance of sustaining predators, wolves in this case, in the natural cycle for all wildlife. As the Yellowstone Park disaster indicates, when they eradicated wolves, the deer overpopulated, devoured habitat causing bird and other mammal losses. Only when there is a balance in nature with all wildlife that naturally exist included can we consider ourselves good stewards of the Earth. Thank you.