

Yvon Lynch

We must save the wolves in Washington State to ensure the balance of nature. I lived in Seattle for many years and also had a cabin at the base of Mt. Rainier in Ashford. I greatly enjoyed the "wildlife" experience in Washington. These animals are becoming ever more rare everywhere in the United States. Please be one of the states proactive in the fight FOR wildlife.....thank you. Yvon Haley-Peabody-Lynch