Do you have general comments about the scope of Washington's updated wolf conservation and management plan?

Wolves are just now finally making a comeback anyone out there shooting them for sport should be taken out shot in the face and left to rot on public display with a sign hanging around them saying "I killed an innocent Wolf for no reason other than the fun of it." And if a wolf kills a piece of livestock now and again ranchers get reimbursed for that by the government so they can shut the fuck up about it. Let these beautiful creatures live and do what they do in nature like they're supposed to. Look at the amazing benefits to yellow after they reintroduced wolves. The very idea that we're contemplating allowing people to hunt wolves is so asinine and fucking stupid it's beyond imagination why anyone would even be contemplating this insane craptacular fucking shitshow of an idea.
