Spokane but Hunt Muzzleloader in Washington Eastside. I personally have seen wolves if I had a tag they would have dropped. Had them in my sites numerous times. I truly do not understand why Washington state has not opened a hunting season. Considering the wolves are declining our elk and moose herds along with deer herds in certain GMUS. Essentially in the only northern GMU I AND ALOT OF LATE MUZZLELOADER HUNTERS HUNT GMU 113. The state better figure something out fast before we end up like southern idaho. Ohh wait we already have considering we hired someone that didn't know how to manage them in idaho
