WDFW has identified a list of impact topics to include in the Plan/EIS. Impact topics are a means of organizing the discussion of issues and analysis of impacts. Impact topics can be thought of as chapter or section headings in the Plan/EIS.

Please review this list and add other topics, or items that fit under these headings.

Please check the topics you view as most important.

Wolf conservation and monitoring

Habitat connectivity

Information and education

Do you have general comments about the scope of Washington's updated wolf conservation and management plan?

Wolves are necessary to a healthy ecosystem, cattle ranchers are not. Tax payers ought to be surveyed about land use preferences, paltry charge for grazing costing lives of natural indigenous creatures is not an intelligent choice. As a physician, beef is not a healthy component to human diets and food for wolves is preferable. Our current system of not only financially over compensating ranchers for their undefended bovine herds, but also killing natural predators is morally and financially bankrupt.
