

Debra Grossman

What is your gender?

Female

Age?

61

County (or Counties) of Primary Residence?

Maricopa County

Residential setting:

Urban

Do you identify yourself as any of the following?

Outdoor Recreationist

WDFW has identified a list of impact topics to include in the Plan/EIS. Impact topics are a means of organizing the discussion of issues and analysis of impacts. Impact topics can be thought of as chapter or section headings in the Plan/EIS.

Please review this list and add other topics, or items that fit under these headings.

Please check the topics you view as most important.

Wolf conservation and monitoring

Wolf management areas

Wolf-livestock conflicts

Wolf-ungulate interactions

Wolf hunting

Do you have general comments about the scope of Washington's updated wolf conservation and management plan?

Washington is one of my favorite places to visit. It would be a dream come true for me and countless others to hear the wolves howl in the forests. I hope to see one in the wild with my camera. Your forests are dense and perfect habitat for the wolves. They can make their homes there and feel protected until you allow serial killing human monsters to enter and invade their private wilderness homes and kill for their fur, head or simply just for the pure joy of killing of them. I beg of you, please do not allow any wolf killing just for the fun! I am so beyond sick of seeing serial hunters joyfully and arrogantly posing with their wolf kills. This must stop! Additionally, I hope you will allow room in your state for wolves to roam and be wolves. It appears you've given priority to Cows and Ranchers and have allowed Cows to roam freely, then punish a wolf a finds a cow left alone. I believe Cows should no longer be grazing on public lands where there are wolves. Force Ranchers to take responsibility for their cows and force them to keep cows on their private land. We want wolves more than cows! Please, I beg of you!