

Jane Wiebe

I do not want oil spill prevention and response statues to become more lenient. It's more important to me to preserve our relatively pristine environment than to generate more oil revenue for our state. The oil industry must take this responsibility as part of what it takes to do business. Please do not roll back the regulations,