

Ingrid Taylor

I urge you to not roll back requirements that regulate pollution and safeguard the environment. Oil companies and other businesses must be prevented from chipping away regulations that have served the state well since the Valdez oil spill.