

Carol Meyer

I urge you to keep the environmental standards that have been instituted post the Exxon Valdez disaster. There is no reasonable path to easing restrictions. We HAVE to protect the best interests of our state