

Jane Miles

I strongly oppose any legislative or regulatory changes that would erode oil spill prevention and response standards or increase the risk of a catastrophic spill. We can not be complacent simply because there has not been another "Valdez oil spill".I support the continuation of the strong regulations that are currently in place.