

Josh Ellis

Please support the proposal to require all domestics to be tested before entry into Alaska. Our wild sheep have already been afflicted by this disease and we cannot afford to let it spread and decimate our treasured wild sheep population.