

Larry Johnson

Testing should absolutely be required. The catastrophic and generation lasting effects that these diseases could have on AK's sheep populations can not be taken lightly. Truth be told there should be an outright ban on domestic sheep in AK.