

Gretchen Keiser

As a retired biologist, I support the issuance of this permit. SAWC is a trusted organization that has studied methods of eradication of these invasive species. The organization and its professional ecologist, John Hudson, will conduct its work in a careful way that limits the introduction of the pesticide chemicals into the watersheds.