

Bri Havrilla

This change would not only hurt our local farmers/ small business owners but also make it impossible for those of us that enjoy raw milk, purchased directly from farm to table. The health risks are minimal if any. I sincerely hope this does not pass.