

Denise Wilhelm

This regulation is far over-reaching for the average small producer. It asks too much! I was excited to see the state get behind food security and raw dairy, but these regulations are impossible to meet for the vast majority of producers.