

Mary-Ellen Garner

Please consider the ways in which this proposed project will have long lasting implications for Alaskans. Radioactive wastes cause significant contamination and environmental pollution which can lead to cancer and other genetic mutations. Let us not burden future generations with waste that will live on in perpetuity, much after our lives have ended.