

Dakota Orm

I oppose the adoption of these new regulations. Alaska needs to invest in renewable energy sources, energy conservation and climate action, and to not pursue expensive and dangerous nuclear technologies that will harm our state and its people.