

sharon whytal

Nuclear power is no substitute for renewable energy sources they ARE possible. Please prevent costly, dangerous nuclear energy in Alaska. These regulations would permit the construction of micronuclear reactors in Alaska in hazardous locations with no oversight or accountability. Nuclear energy is a false solution. Alaska must invest urgently in renewable energy sources, energy conservation and climate action, not expensive and dangerous nuclear technologies. Thank you for taking public comment on this important issue!