

Wilma Hampson

I own a commercial business and live in the same building. There are 3 generations living in the building. We have a private drilled well and any contaminated ground water could affect it. We could also be affected by air quality. This business you are purposing is entirely too close to a major residential area. Please reconsider locating it to a different place.

Thank you for your consideration.