

Charlotte Tanner

It is frightening to think what will happen when these storage sites are no longer tracked. The tanks will degrade and start to leak and nobody will be the wiser. I imagine a lot of harm to plants and animals might occur. Please don't repeal this regulation.