

Joel Teune

After briefly reviewing the proposed changes, it has become clear that many of the proposed changes would substantially alter the current industry standards and methods. Some changes could introduce an increased risk for failure and harm to human health regarding wastewater treatment and disposal. I respectfully request an extension on this review period to fully understand each proposed change, how implementation would affect the current status, and develop a prudent response .

Thank you, Joel Teune