

Michael Erdman

The proposed action includes "significant revisions", reorganization, and expansion, of the regulations (18 AAC 72). Given the magnitude of the proposed changes, I suggest that the deadline for submission of comments be extended a minimum of 90 days.

I also suggest that the Department consider forming a working group of regulators, municipal/utility officials, contractors, and professional engineers to review and develop recommendations regarding the proposed regulatory changes.