

Aniya Cannon

I do not agree with the proposed regulations as some of the proposed changes are hard to understand and they kind of mean the same thing. Although not allowing wastewater systems to not be approved by the department may cause for quicker changes, there could be more harm done then good.