

Wendell Shiffler

I'm not against the development of the mine. I am against the transportation of the ore via super huge trucks on the Alaska and Richardson Highway the 280 plus miles to Fort Knox. I think there needs to be more studies done to establish a processing site nearby the mine. This project needs to slow down so that more studies can be done relating to the impact on the environment.