

J. Fischer

I feel our state should be more involved with the plastics problem. It should allow homeowners and those able to compost the option to do so in their own backyard. Instead of charging a compost fee do some serious plastics recycle program allowing more to be recycled instead of filling landfills