

Nancy Anderson

The location of this landfill is the main issue. It is way to close to the river and has problems in the past where users were fined for utilizing it. Garbage should be incinerated not buried or stacked causing leeching to ground water. If the decision is to store solid waste then make it at least ten miles from rivers or lakes.