

Melissa Bonekat

I am opposed to expanding the landfill-given the density of the population surrounding this location, proximity to water sources and overall landscape and topography of the area -this site should be decommissioned altogether. Instead a new site away from population and water sources should be assessed