

Mark Schwartz

As a residential neighbor of Water Gremlin for over 45 years, I now find them untrustworthy. I hope that as part of the new permit they will be required to hold an annual public meeting to help us understand what is going on within their walls. Thank you