

Jeff Broberg

This site has a long history with the pollution source going back 40 or 50 years. The mitigation system that needs replacement is almost three decades old. This newly proposed technology is amazing if true. Has this technique proven to clean-up these mobile plumes of contamination? Are there successful cleanups of any kind in sandy alluvial terraces?