

Rochelle Michel

Please contact me about the tremendous opportunities for recycling that exist within our school systems. I am a public school administrator and I have first hand insights into the unchecked materials and food waste that occur and can be mitigated through simple procedures.