

Thea Ulen

I didn't see textile recycling addressed. I'm not talking about clothing that can be used but clothing that is beyond reuse, soiled or ripped linens, fabric scraps from sewing, yarn leftovers ect. I know there is a company in Mpls that does this but their website is geared towards businesses not individual residences.

Also curbside plastic bags/film recycling. I know Ridwell is now offering this service but it is quite expensive.