

Emily Beltt

St Paul desperately needs organics recycling! Please please please give us an option other than throwing away biodegradables or driving them to a local waste site. There has to be a better option to us that doesn't involve every homeowner having a compost pile in view of all the neighborhood.