

Michele Fluhr Fraser

I wonder if we stopped buying beverages that use plastic bottles, especially water, would change much of our situation. Since plastic recycling appears to be too expensive and is not actually happening, we need a HUGE public information campaign on what harm these plastics are causing and how we can reduce the forever waste these bottles create. Thank you.