

t k readio

I had always been keen on recycling, until I learned that our efforts resulted in materials being bailed and sent to other countries. I thought we were conserving our resources for reuse HERE. I want facilities built HERE to reuse materials HERE. And I want it to be non-profit, not commerce-driven. Local collection for local reuse. I don't see much of that--except a little of the construction matetisls--in your plans.