

Jay Krafthefer

Minnesota is long overdue in restoring its once container deposit legislation. It worked well for us before. It would reduce our use of plastic. The MPCA must improve its efforts to communicate and publicize the data that demonstrates the value of container deposit legislation. Such a change would go long way to help our planet.