

Dem Con

More must be done in the plan to address the impact of lithium ion batteries on processing facilities. These batteries have become a threat to the industry and a large fire hazard. Critical infrastructure is being threatened by this issue.