

Chris Long

I haven't read the plan, but unrecyclable plastics are a large part of what we, as a household, put into the trash. We need to transition to using only fully recyclable or compostable plastics statewide.