

Leanna Goose

At every landfill, there must be a place for E-waste recycling. This is a must so we do not have to continue mining the earth for precious metals, we can reuse the metals we have already removed from the earth. This makes sense for Minnesota as mining is dangerous for water-rich environments. Minnesota is a water-rich environment.