

Judy Huber

I too would like to see organic pickup. I compost in the summer and fall but in the winter my 2 spinning compost are full. I take my composts to a compost site after I have about six small full bags in the winter and spring. I let it pile up a little because all of the locations are out of my way. Can you please put a recycling bin at the far corner of the Eagan community center for this winter. Thank you