

Steven Bern

Stop BURNING plastic waste! It contributes CO₂ to the atmosphere that would otherwise be sequestered! In today's day and age, I don't see how a progressive metropolitan area can continue to condone the burning of such wastes. Instead, divert plastics to landfills so the carbon stays in the ground.