

John Borden

There is presently no tax-funded service for multi-family homes to receive trash, recycling, nor organics pick-ups. Providing this would immediately increase rates of recycling and hopefully reduce voluntary costs of multi-family residences which choose these services.